

HARTFORD WEEKLY HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Park and Prop.
JNO. O'FLAHERTY, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12.

The Chicago Anarchists have been condemned to death. The date fixed for their execution, is the 3rd of December.

JUDGE A. B. MONTGOMERY spent a few days at the Fair. The Judge is to be enjoyed; however, he found the Democrats of Ohio entirely all Montgomery men; there is no split here. We propose to give him a rousing majority.

DURING the continuance in power of the Republican party, $100,000,000 were expended in the vain attempt to create a navy. The party yielded the control of empire, there was no navy. Will Mr. Sherman say what became of the money?

We had a very pleasant call from Editor Barnett, of Morganfield, last week. Mr. Barnett is making good paper, and we hope his county will appreciate his efforts. Mr. Barnett is a tall, well informed gentleman, and will make his mark as a journalist.

MR. SHERMAN said that the only shibboleth of the Democrats was "turn the rascals out," but that on coming into power they found no rascals to turn out. The gentleman certainly forgot that defalcation, amounting to $13,000,000 up to this time, have been discovered against Republican officials.

SENATOR SHERMAN has two tongues, just before coming to Louisville, his Northern one was stilled in arousing sectional strife, and in trumpeting the beauties of the bloody shirt; in Louisville, his Southern tongue dealt taftly to benighted Kentuckians, and every intonation of his voice was musical and patriotic.

SENATOR SHERMAN is in his Louisville speech the President pocketed Morrison's resolution to distribute the surplus in the Treasury in the payment of U. S. Bonds. The great Ohio statesmen did not say, however, that the Democratic Treasurer has, since the adjournment of Congress, paid off twice as many bonds as the resolutions called for.

WHILE Senator Sherman was denouncing the Administration's Civil Service reform, in his speech at Portsmouth, Ohio, the President signed the modified rules which give Union soldiers a better chance of appointment in the Civil Service of the Government. The rules give the veterans precedence. What a pity the honorable Senator wasted so much thunder.

HON. ASHER G. CARUTH is the Democratic nominee of the 5th Congressional district, bearing Willis by 1263 majority. Mr. Willis made a good representative, but that does not prove that Caruth will not make as good a one if he is a better one. The Courier-Journal, it seems, has some information about Louisville, after all, and Mr. Haldeman was not mistaken in the temper of the people. The old gentleman can now smile at his leisure.

The Courier-Journal finds a crowd of comfort in the resolutions of the convention which nominated Caruth, which resolution demanded Federal aid, it is said, in the thought that the slaves, claiming to be Democratic, voted against the bill.

That Journal should not forget that Democratic conventions resolve very foolishly; sometimes, nor should the fact escape it, that Democratic Congressmen opposed Federal aid to improve rivers and harbors, on the grounds that the states alone should do so.

LAW.

Mr. Powderly in his address to the Knights of Labor, assembled in Richmond, Va., says, that at no distant day, the mechanics of the present, will be a mere machine feeder of the future.

Machines to set type, and to fold papers, will displace the laborer, and he who gets $3, at present, must reconcile himself to the era of low wages, where machine supremacy over manual labor will be recognized in all branches of industry; that the only means of establishing a natural equipoise between the employer and the employee, is to prohibit it.

We have maintained from the beginning of the labor troubles, that the principle of co-operation must be applied to all the relations existing between capital and labor; otherwise, the conflict between these two elements is irrepressible. The accumulation of labor-saving machines, strikes, arbitration, fewer hours, even legislation will powerless to adjust the differences which now exist, and which will continue to exist, until capital becomes wise enough to consult the interests of labor, as a potent factor in the production of legitimate profits.

Labor troubles are not confined to the United States; but wherever the wage system comes in contact with capital, the same uneasiness exists. Police and armies cannot regulate it. Legislation cannot adjust the balances, there must be created a community of interests, antagonistic must be driven from view, are the effect, which is manifestly irreconcileable to be ended.

LET IT BE 1300.

The friends of Prohibition should be up and doing. The time to be the election is short, what is done, must be done soon. Logan county gave 750 majority. Let us place Ohio county in the front rank—let us make her the banner. Prohibition county, by rolling up 1200 majority.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Oct. 2.—In consequence of the outbreak of pleurisy pneumonia now exists among the cattle of State of Illinois, and that there is continual danger of the importation of this disease into this State from that State.

Now, therefore, it is known, that the State of Illinois, Kentucky, in the exercise of the authority conferred upon it by law, hereby issues its proclamation of quarantining against the State of Illinois, and warns and prohibits any and all persons, corporations and companies, engaged in the business of buying and selling the bovine species from this State to the above named State, except in accordance with the following rules and regulations:

1. That the owner or the shipper of cattle from the above named State, shall, before entering into this State, any cattle for my purpose whatever, forward to the Secretary of the State, or his agent, at Bowling Green the following evidence of being free from disease, and receive from him a permit for shipment:

a. Certificate of health signed by a Veterinary Inspector of the State or by a Veterinary Inspector of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry.

b. Affidavit of two disinterested citizens that they have known the cattle in question for a period of three months prior to the time of shipment; that they are in good health and are not contagious disease; and that no contagious disease is known or believed to exist in the county from which they came.

c. Affidavit of owner that his cattle are the identical cattle described in the foregoing affidavits and certificates, and that such cattle will be kept apart from all other cattle for a period of ninety days after their arrival in this State.

d. Certificate of the County Clerk of said County, or other corresponding official, that the parties making such affidavits are responsible citizens of such county.

e. Affidavit of owner that his cattle are the same as those who temporally came to this country, and that it is impossible that a rummer who has the power of strong drink to craze and madden men, may be more guilty than the rest of us in committing crimes committed by them who are tempted to get drunk than they are.

Come to the front ye wise legislators and aspirants, don't be afraid I will injure you very much hereafter, to office in the next decade; the chisel is already made for you, come, see over your shoulder, and when you are fit for Friday night, you will be here. It has been said, after weeks from tempestuous complaints with which he has been troubled for four or five years, but his condition was not regarded as dangerous until the same days he died, was suddenly taken ill, and having been rapidly away with his dear ones gathered at his bedside. He was conscious to the very last, and said he was prepared to meet his God, but hated to leave his wife with the world.

CHARLES R. ROBERTSON was one of the best men we ever knew. In the private walks of life and in the social circle he was loved for his genial manners his frankness and benevolent purpose. He never lost his love for the poor and he never forgot a friend. Goodness and forgoing to his enemies, those who did not love him invariably repented him. To his family, he was all that a son could be, and here the hand heaviest, for he leaves little children, the oldest not over thirteen years of age.

In the act of his life is that devotion which his family more clearly evidenced than the way he stood by and helped his brother, Thos. A. Robertson in his political needs. Unanimous of self, his own private attachment to his brother, and the most cordially identified with his brothers, he contended that many men said the last race "voted for Sam." Never, in this particular, have we seen such a unanimous and sincere self-sacrifice.

The gentlemen, as far as we could observe, and so far as the general observation of our people went, depicted themselves in a manner to elicit the very highest eulogiums. The ladies gave the greatest satisfaction.

The wags were as generally witty in the cities. The company had crowded houses, and we are pleased to know that they were financially successful.

The Plain Truth.

The Arne Walker Company is composed of able artists. The ladies of the company bear the reputation of being retiring, modest and lady-like, and certainly maintained that high character while here.
